

I would like to compliment this radio stations accross the country and world. They have repeatly gone out of there way to serve this country editifing waht we stand for and our country's heritage. They continue to impress me with the quality of music, assisting those in need, and all that do on the air. Please continue to allow the group of AIR-1 to exist and thrive.

Sincerely
Dan Rondeau